

The Chile Chico

January 2013- Vol. 32

Happy New Year!

2012 was a great year! (I think I always say that). The Lord has certainly blessed Jan and I. A wonderful family, good health, and a ministry, which I believe, makes a difference. Trips to Myanmar, Cambodia, and Alaska in a certain sense seem like quite a while ago yet it was only this past year. And yes, 2013 looks as exciting as this past year. We begin the year with a mission trip to a country in southern Europe with Grove City College students. (The missionaries have asked us not to publish the country's name due to security reasons.) In the Spring, we have a family canoe trip planned for May and another family canoe trip in August on the French River in Ontario. Our two featured trips include our July backpacking trip to the Bob Marshall Wilderness in July, followed by the August, a deep wilderness canoe trip in Labrador, Canada. The Tumpline Ministries website will have more details published in early February.

Now, turn your compass due south....all the way south to the tip of South America! Our last trip for 2013 will be a mission/touring/hiking trip in Chile and Argentina. It will literally be a trip of life time!!! Why not join us!!!
